YOUR GUIDE TO Sioux Falls'
NATURAL PLAYGROUNDS

Set Out to Explore the Natural Wonders in and Around the City

BY SHELBY DEERING

Brimming with prairie grasslands, rolling hills, and lofty canyons, South Dakota is a gem for anyone with a desire to explore the great outdoors. The getaway for all of these natural wonders? Sioux Falls, with must-see outdoor destinations found within and around the city. Between hiking, wildlife-spotting, skiing, and more, South Dakota's largest city is chock-full of outdoor marvels to explore, including these extraordinary parks, trails, and natural areas.

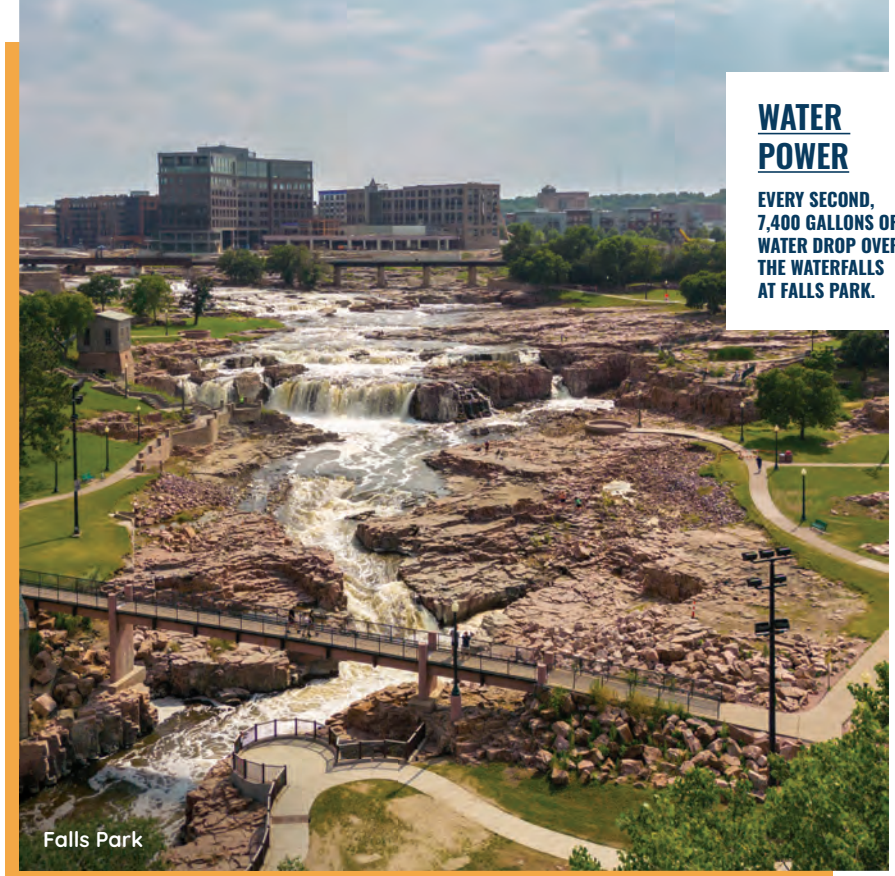

Falls Park

FALLS PARK

Ever wonder how Sioux Falls got its name? Well, wonder no more with a visit to Falls Park, the 128-acre park punctuated with striking waterfalls that inspired the name of this fair city. Conveniently located right in the action of downtown, the park gives a bird's-eye view of the impressive tiered falls with the help of viewing platforms, including a five-story observation tower.

Beyond the Falls, there's no shortage of things to do within this stunning park. For instance, there's the Falls Park Farmers Market, held May through October and packed with the freshest fruits and veggies around. Grab a bite at the Falls Overlook Cafe, where you'll get the best seat overlooking the falls as you nibble on light fare like soups, salads, and, of course, locally made ice cream. Take a

ANCIENT GROUND

NATIVE AMERICAN TRIBES ONCE THRIVED IN THE AREA WHERE GOOD EARTH STATE PARK AT BLOOD RUN NOW STANDS, WITH EVIDENCE OF PEOPLE LIVING IN THE AREA FROM AD 1300 TO 1700.

Good Earth State Park at Blood Run

GOOD EARTH STATE PARK AT BLOOD RUN

Only a few miles from Sioux Falls lies the state's latest and greatest state park: Good Earth State Park at Blood Run, established in 2013. With the Big Sioux River coursing through the 588-acre expanse on its way to Iowa, there are plenty of offerings for outdoor enthusiasts here, including hiking trails with scenic overlooks and wildlife viewing.

But the history of this land sets it apart and garnered it recognition as a National Historic Landmark. Evidence shows that this area is one of the country's oldest sites of long-term human settlement. Don't miss the Visitor Center, where you can learn so much more about this fascinating area.

GREAT BEAR RECREATION PARK

If you like outdoor fun of the winter variety, you're in luck with Great Bear Recreation Park. It boasts more than 200 acres, and its Ski Valley is especially famed for its opportunities to make the most out of winter. Think: tubing, skiing, snowshoeing, and snowboarding, all enjoyed on 14 downhill trails, a quad chairlift, and four miles of groomed cross-country trails. Although South Dakota is often associated with being a winter paradise, it may surprise you to know that Great Bear Recreation Park is the only ski and snowboarding area in the eastern section of the state.

Perhaps you prefer warmer temperatures? If so, you'll be glad to know that the park's four-mile trail system that's so great for cross-country skiing in the winter is also fabulous for walking to witness the area's natural splendor. The native plant display is something to behold.

GREAT BEAR RECREATION PARK WILL BE THE SITE OF THE FIRST EVER LALLYCOOLER MUSIC FESTIVAL IN JULY 2025.

PLAY AT A PARK

With more than 80 city parks offering hiking, biking, water play, history, and more, you'll never be far from outdoor fun when visiting the city. Bring your wheels—skateboards, inline skates, and BMX bikes—to cruise the bowl, ramps, and rails at Barb Iverson Skate Plaza, one of the largest skate parks in the country. And opening in 2025, Jacobson Plaza at The Falls promises fun for everyone in the family, with an ice skating ribbon, all-inclusive playground, dog park, and more. TREASURE HUNT

IN 1886, SILVER WAS DISCOVERED IN SPLIT ROCK CREEK. BUT SINCE THE SILVER WAS PROVED TO BE LOW QUALITY, THE DISCOVERY CLAIMS WERE EVENTUALLY DISCOUNTED.

Palisades State Park

This is a paved, pleasantly smooth way to take in the scenery and the wildlife of the area. Even better? It's use is not limited to biking. You can skate, run, and walk year-round on the well-maintained trails. This is the perfect way to see all that Sioux Falls has to offer, from Falls Park to city views to riverside sights.

PALISADES STATE PARK

About a half-hour drive from Sioux Falls, you'll discover Palisades State Park—an expansive 167-acre park spotlighting natural spectacles you won't see anywhere else.

Flowing through the park, Split Rock Creek is flanked by stunning 50-foot, 1.2-billion-year-old Sioux quartzite formations that exemplify the area's natural beauty. It should come as no surprise that rock climbers flock to this area to tackle the formations. Hiking trails beckon to explorers, and the state park also plays host to anyone who loves to bike, fish, camp, or geocache.

SIoux FALLS IS FOR FAMILIES

THESE AWESOME ATTRACTIONS WILL DELIGHT & ENGAGE KIDS OF ALL AGES (EVEN PARENTS TOO!)

BY KIM REINER

SioUX Falls is no ordinary family getaway. No matter if the kids want up-close encounters with animals or unforgettable adventures, the city has it all.

WINGS & WILD THINGS

For animal lovers, your first stops should be the Butterfly House & Aquarium and the Great Plains Zoo. The Butterfly House & Aquarium is South Dakota's only insectarium. This tropical-oasis-in-a-city features hundreds of butterflies fluttering around a waterfall and koi pond. Purchase a butterfly feeder when you get there to attract the delicate insects as you explore. The building also houses the Aquarium Gallery, where families have a close-up view of stingrays, colorful coral, and exotic sea life from around the world. Don't skip the touch tank and Discover Den with hands-on activities for young children.

The Great Plains Zoo's exciting new lion habitat recently opened, so be among the first to marvel at lions and meerkats in one of the largest species-specific habitats in North America. Save plenty of time to see the rest of the zoo, though. There are snow monkeys, as well as bison, bears, giraffes, red wolves, and so much more. Exhibits like the kangaroo enclosure and farm area allow visitors to get extra close to the animals. Exclusive experiences are available for reservation: feed a rhino, observe a big cat training demonstration, or go behind the scenes to meet the zoo's bison and miniature horse. Don't forget to bring swimsuits and towels. The zoo's splash pad is included with admission.

There are snow monkeys, as well as bison, bears, giraffes, red wolves, and so much more.

Thunder Road Entertainment

CHILLS & THRILLS

Thunder Road Entertainment is packed with year-round family fun, including laser tag, bumper cars, and bowling. The outdoor attractions are open seasonally and include go-kart tracks, a tilt-a-whirl, and 18 holes of mini golf.

Wild Water West Waterpark boasts the state's only wave pool, as well as waterslides, a lazy river, bumper boats, mini golf, go-karts, batting cages, and more. Midco Aquatic Center provides year-round water play with an indoor diving pool and waterslides, and warm-weather good times on an outdoor splash pad and sun deck. The all-outdoor Terrace Park Family Aquatic Center keeps the thrills high with four drop slides. Kids also love the zero-depth entry pool and playful mini slides.

Play in the state's only wave pool, as well as on waterslides and a lazy river.

Some of the best kinds of adventures in Sioux Falls are the free ones.

MARVEL AT THE FALLS

Stroll paved trails around the city's iconic waterfalls, stopping at any one of the viewing platforms to get a closer look—and better selfies—at Falls Park.

FIND YOUR ZEN

The Japanese Gardens is an unexpected pocket of serenity in the city with stone lanterns and pagodas near Covell Lake in Terrace Park.

MAKE TIME FOR PLAY

Historic McKenna Park offers year-round recreational fun with a playground, sports courts, ice skating rink during winter, as well as a chance to cool off in the summer in a free wading pool.

EXPLORE THE OUTDOORS

There's plenty of recreational opportunities at South Dakota Game, Fish, and Parks' Outdoor Campus, including two miles of trails, fishing, and canoeing.

IGNITE & IMAGINE

No matter your kids' ages, the Kirby Science Discovery Center is a must-visit. Young and old will enjoy exploring three floors of exhibits ranging from space exploration and dinosaurs to health and fitness. Younger children will adore the large water table and prehistoric-themed climbing gym, as well as the exhibits that immerse them in everyday life, such as a grocery store and farm. Older kids will be delighted and challenged by the building activities, games, and brain teasers. For hands-on arts activities, visit the neighboring Visual Arts Center.

The Kirby Science Discovery Center and Visual Arts Center are located inside the Washington Pavilion, which also houses the Sweetman Planetarium. The state-of-the-art planetarium system includes five high-resolution screen projectors that make each show a mesmerizing experience for the audience. Choose from a variety of interesting films, knowing that the shorter film options are great for families with younger children.

FLAVORS FOR EVERY MEAL
OF THE DAY

BY DIANE VADINO

Whether you're looking to start your morning with an award-winning French pastry and coffee or close it out with an equally acclaimed steak dinner and a slice of key lime pie, Sioux Falls has something for everyone and every time of day. Make the most of each meal with a visit to any one of these heritage spots that have been passed down between generations, or at innovative eateries that keep bringing fresh ideas and new dishes to the local food scene.

Fernson Brewing

Start Your Day Off Right

Sioux Falls' luckiest dogs get a walk every morning to Josiah's, where their equally fortunate owners can sit down with a cup of outstanding coffee in a welcoming, dog-friendly environment. Pick up a latte and a fried egg sandwich to go, or settle in for something from the lengthy breakfast menu, including THE Cure: a croissant bun (with maple-brown sugar butter), ham, bacon, sausage, hash browns, an over-hard egg, and cheese, plus a side. Don't leave without trying one of the many made-from-scratch desserts and pastries, like a fruit-filled pop tart or a mouthwatering caramel roll that will have you begging for more.

A Sioux Falls staple for more than 50 years, The Cookie Jar Eatery has been a go-to for both families and working professionals downtown. Owners Elaine and Glen Koch serve breakfast classics like egg-and-cheese sandwiches, oatmeal, cinnamon rolls, frittatas, and more—and you can expect perfection in every bite. In addition to breakfast, you can choose from an array of sandwiches for lunch and large cookies—such as peanut butter, monster, frosted, and many more—for a sweet treat.

One of the most unexpected breakfast hotspots in Sioux Falls is at a brewery. Yes, you read that correctly. Fernson Brewing has been pouring its delicious beer for 10 years and has since expanded its operations by adding a downtown taproom, serving lunch and dinner, and most recently started serving breakfast, coffee, and tea. Order one of the specialty breakfast sandwiches or build your own—with your choice of sausage, bacon, ham, eggs, cheese, garlic aioli, onion jam, and more—to pair with your black coffee, latte, tea, or whatever you enjoy most to start your day.

Tinners Public House

Bring the Bunch for Brunch

Does your idea of the perfect brunch involve the word “Benny”? Then Tinners Public House is your spot (and that’s at either the new Tinners North location or the original on the Southside). The prime rib Benedict involves an English muffin topped with prime rib, eggs, and house-made hollandaise sauce, while the Hillbilly Benedict includes sausage patties and two any-style eggs atop a pair of buttermilk biscuits, all slathered in rich sausage gravy.

Rest assured, you won’t leave hungry at Original Pancake House. Sure, you can order all the classic morning staples, like eggs, bacon, hash browns, French toast, and, of course, pancakes, but don’t miss out on specialty dishes like lemon-and-mascarpone cheese-filled crepes or the breakfast quesadilla, loaded with scrambled eggs, chorizo, sausage, bacon, and pico de gallo.

While Crooked Pint Ale House is known for its Juicy Lucys (burger patties stuffed with cheese), its weekend brunch menu is full of underrated features. Try the Sunrise Tacos, with scrambled eggs, poblano peppers, bacon, salsa, avocado, cheddar cheese, chipotle ranch, and more, all served with a side of hash browns.

Make the Most of Your Midday Meal

If you’re the kind of person who might pass on a sandwich for lunch fearing you’ll leave hungry,

Bread & Circus Sandwich Kitchen

will set you right. Here, heaps of flavorful fillings—like the Vietnamese Fried Chicken sandwich’s crispy chicken thighs, bahn mi pickles, and cilantro aioli—spill from their rolls. Round out your meal with equally hearty sides like the Naughty Fries: pork chile verde, taqueria pickles, queso fresco, and cilantro.

The authentic Mexican flavors at Azteca Mexican Restaurant are sure to hit the spot midday. Enjoy fresh chips and salsa, sizzling fajitas, burritos with a range of ingredient combinations, and delicious seafood dishes like tilapia, shrimp, and crab legs. No matter what you order, every bite is full of bold flavors and pairs perfectly with a cold Mexican beer or the house specialty margarita.

Mama’s Ladas, Sioux Falls’ best—and only—enchiladas-centric eatery has earned the love of locals for its always-fresh enchiladas, guacamole, and nachos. While the menu may be short—you’ll find only about a half-dozen options, including beef, chicken, and broccoli and cheese enchiladas—the food is not short on excellent home-cooked flavor, and the playlists of 80s and 90s hits are peerless.

Dinnertime Delights

Not every restaurant shows up on The Food Network, but Look's Marketplace did when it hosted Guy Fieri and the Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives crew just a few years ago. Eat like Fieri and order the Porcules, a sausage and pork sandwich he called "the full home run," or pick up provisions from Look's well-sourced gourmet market. Sample your way through one of the many rotating craft beers brewed on-site by Look's Beer Co.

Myrtle's Fur Vault & Bar

DID YOU SAVE ROOM FOR DESSERT?

BAKED BEAUTIES

Tucked into the heart of downtown Sioux Falls, CH Patisserie makes it easy to get a little taste of France. Award-winning pastry chef Chris Hamner's thoroughly Parisian menu showcases an eclectic range of macaron flavors (like coffee caramel, cake frosting, and pistachio) as well as croissants, beignets, and Breton kouign-amanns.

COOKIE CRAVINGS

Looking for a mountain full of flavor? Look no further than Mary's Mountain Cookies. Large, freshly baked gourmet cookies come in more than 20 flavors, and specialty sandwich cookies include buttercream-frosting-filled chocolate chip, Oreo, snickerdoodle, and M&M. They also offer gluten-free options, brownies, and even ice cream-filled cookies.

PETITE TREATS

Whatever your cupcake dream, you'll find it at either of Oh My Cupcakes! locations. The comprehensive menu includes some varieties only available by special order, but just call a day in advance if you'd like to pick up some Blueberry Pancakes, My Sweet Pumpkins, Raspberry Lemonades, or dozens of others. Everyday options include the Chocolate Peanut Butter Attack, Strawberry Fields, and Triple Chocolate Meltdown, with plenty of low-carb and gluten-free options too.

Sample your way through one of the many rotating craft beers brewed on-site.

Look's Marketplace

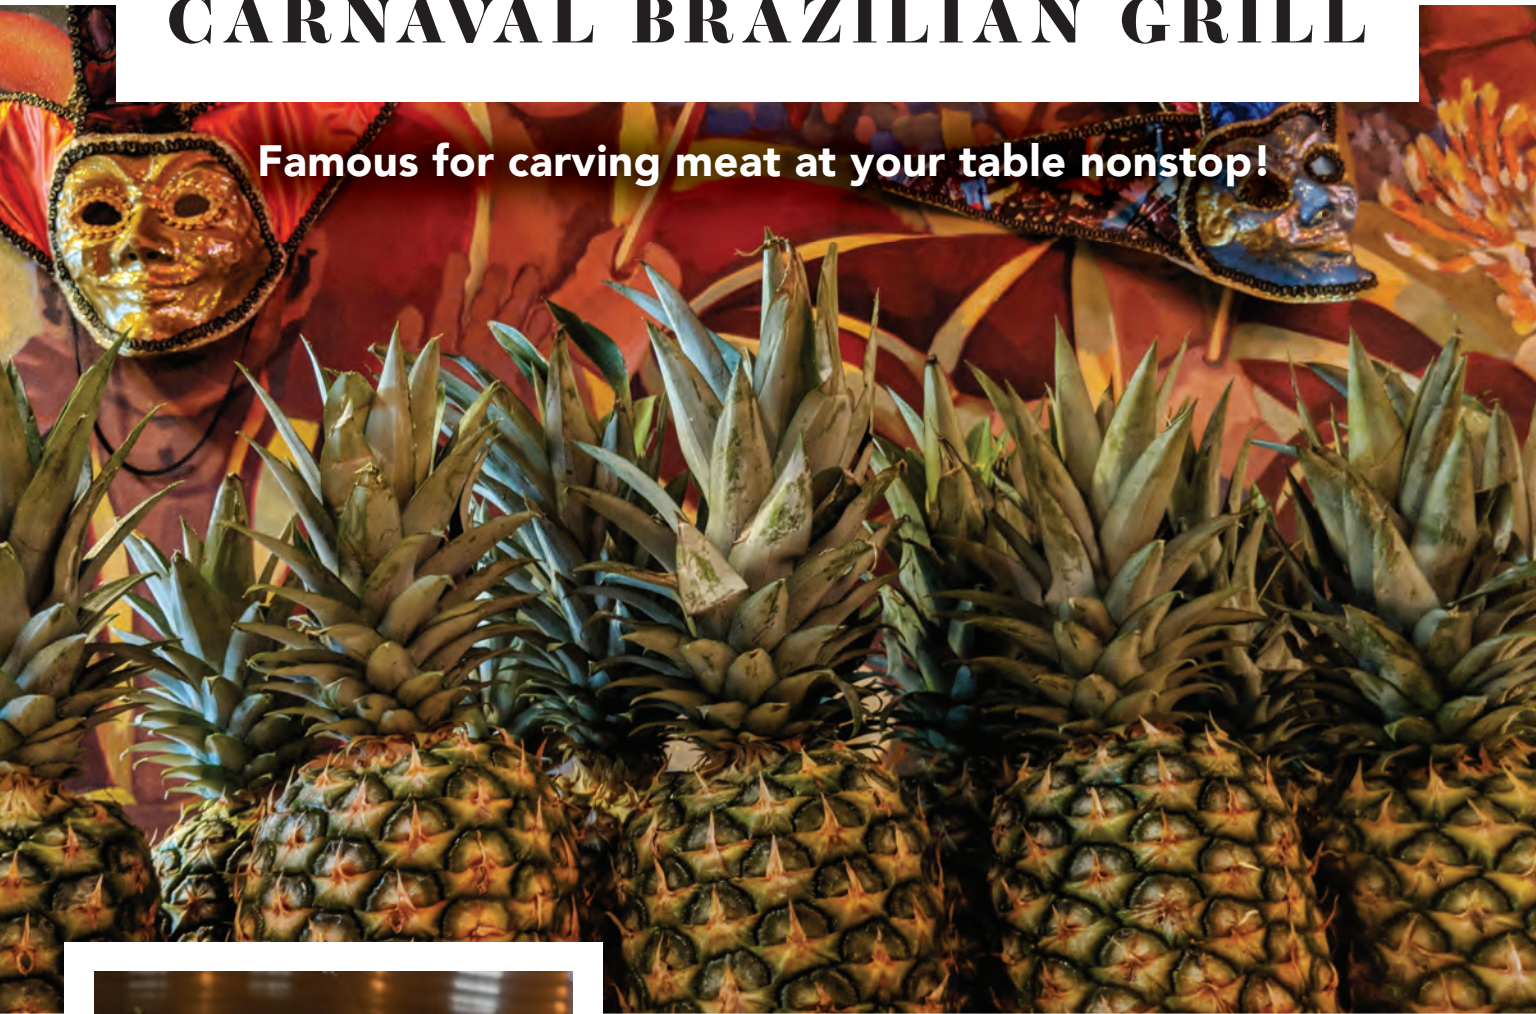

An exceptional experience in downtown Sioux Falls, Parker's Bistro is a special-occasion kind of place—even if that special occasion is simply a Wednesday night. Using high-quality meat and the freshest produce, every dish tells a story that leaves a lasting impression. The restaurant recently completed an impressive renovation of its 1934 building with an expansion of the dining room and the debut of Myrtle's Fur Vault & Bar, a new cocktail bar (once the "vault" where furs were stored during the summer).

R Wine Bar + Kitchen is a great choice any night of the week (except on Sunday, when the restaurant is closed), but an especially good one when it teams up with a visiting sommelier for spectacular, four-course meals with wine pairings. You'll see owner Riccardo Tarabelsi's Florentine roots all over the Italian menu in selections like bistecca Gorgonzola, shrimp scampi, pasta al limone, and more. The caprese salad alone will change the way you think about Italian food.

A FESTIVAL OF MEATS

CARNAVAL BRAZILIAN GRILL

Famous for carving meat at your table nonstop!

◀ SINCE WE FIRED UP OUR ROTISSERIES IN 2005 we have been perfecting the craft of serving meats to our guests using traditional southern Brazilian roasting and serving techniques. Thanks to our techniques, we have been voted “Most Unique Dining Experience” since 2005!

When you flip your token to green, the parade of meats begins. If you want to rest, turn your token to red, and when you’re ready for more, just turn it back to green. Keep flipping the token until you’ve tried every skewer or until your appetite for meat has been satisfied. For those with a smaller appetite, we do offer appetizers or shareable plates that you can pair with your favorite beverage while enjoying the company of your family or friends.

We have a fantastic wine list, serve beer and cocktails, and have nonalcoholic options. From Brazil, we have Xingu, Guarana, and, of course, Brazil’s national drink, the Caipirinha!

SHAKEN stirred, & POURED

BY DIANE VADINO

The size and ambition of the Sioux Falls beverage scene is growing even faster than the city. There's never been a better time to raise a glass here, with ambitious new cocktail programs, a global selection of wines and spirits, and a hearty list of craft breweries.

ISLAND TIME

For a fun island vibe, take a barstool perch at The Hello Hi, which bills itself as “a perfectly normal bar with a strange affinity for tropical moods and legendary tiki cocktails.” You’ll find tiki classics like mai tais and daiquiris, as well as signature cocktails like the Kiss of Death, a fruity blend of rum, mezcal, pineapple, guava, and lime.

THE LIQUID ASSET

The Treasury at Hotel On Phillips channels 1920s glamour within the one-time Sioux Falls National Bank building, with a rotating list of inventive cocktails like the Counterfeiter, with blanco tequila, orange liqueur, pineapple, lime, and spice from a serrano pepper, or the Treasury Spritz, featuring Martini & Rossi Fiero Aperitivo, prosecco, cardamom bitters, honey, lemon, and soda water.

BOTTLES & BLISS

Brix Wine Bar is owned by the same family behind R Wine Bar + Kitchen. Multicourse wine-centric dinners focus on personal favorites or specific regions—or your pick from their cellar of 1,000-plus bottles.

HANDMADE IN THE

Heartland

LOCAL MAKERS PUT THE SOUL OF SIOUX FALLS
INTO THEIR HANDCRAFTED GOODS

BY EMILY POGUE

Sweetgrass Soapery

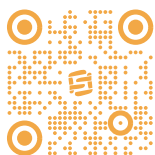

Sioux Falls is home to a diverse scene of local makers whose unique creations represent and capture the vibrancy of the community. Whether you're looking for art, food, or something for your home or body, there are plenty of prairie-made products to fill your bags.

Sweetgrass Soapery & All Walks Trading Co.

Coming from the grasslands of the northern prairie to the bustling streets of Sioux Falls, Miranda Koltze transitioned her homesteading skills and passion for nature into a successful retail venture known as Sweetgrass Soapery. Her handmade soaps are simple and luxurious, with natural ingredients sown, grown, and harvested from as many regional sources as possible, including her family farm. Using nature's bounty to create various textures, scents, colors, and uses, Koltze is proud to offer simple, sustainable bath and body products that are as beautiful as they are beneficial. "There's a pride in having made something tangible that people can not only enjoy, but that they feel led to share," Koltze says of what it means when people purchase her products.

Not only does Koltze have her soaps for sale, but she also offers other natural products, including herbs that are sacred to the indigenous communities to which she belongs. You can find Koltze's goods—as well as other handmade or homegrown items from makers around the region—at her downtown shop, Sweetgrass Soapery & All Walks Trading Co.

Get yourself greeting cards, paintings, jewelry, stickers, and more—all custom made by local artists. Let the artwork speak to you.

Salas Salsas

Marcela Salas and her mother, Patricia Burbine, are the mother-daughter duo behind Sioux Falls' fresh, authentic, and locally made Salas Salsas. Born in Mexico, Salas learned through family meals how salsa could transform and elevate foods. Salsas currently available include roja (their speciality) and jalapeño lime salsas, as well as a cheddar-cheese-based queso dip; Salsa Jamaica, made with a surprising blend of hibiscus flowers and dried chiles; and Salsa Macha, which is a Mexican chili oil. Bringing her perfectly blended combination of originality and authenticity to the Midwestern market has allowed Salas to introduce more than simply tomato-based salsas to her customers. "We want to educate our community on the possibilities with salsa. It's not just for chips," says Salas. "I grew up drizzling unapologetically."

You can find Salas Salsas at local grocers, at the Falls Park Farmers Market, and at their food truck. You can also purchase their salsas and other authentic foods at their new downtown bodega, BibiSol.

Juniper Apothecary

Located in the 8th & Railroad Center in downtown Sioux Falls, Juniper Apothecary provides a haven of products for natural living. Growing from her own family's desire for safe, clean alternatives for home and body, owner Brittany Sopko started her business to provide holistic options for those seeking all-natural remedies and care products. "I was pregnant with my first baby and realized that so many things had harmful ingredients," recalls Sopko.

"I love the herbal side of things and treating with herbs."

Juniper Apothecary started with family and has remained focused on encouraging other families to make informed decisions about the products they use. Whether you order online or take something home from their retail store, each of the products is created using all-natural, raw materials and are self-formulated and sustainably packaged by hand. Choose from topical solutions and salves, bath and body products, and items for both household and holidays.

EXPERIENCE SIOUX FALLS' ROBUST LIVE MUSIC SCENE

High NOTES

BY ANDREA VAN ESSEN

A chill. A rush. A touch of ambiance. A roaring crowd. Whether you're enjoying a five-star symphony, soft jazz in a cozy wine bar, or a stadium show surrounded by thousands of other concertgoers, nothing hits quite like live music.

DON'T MISS THE DENNY SANFORD PREMIER CENTER

Sioux Falls may be a small city, but that doesn't make it small-time. Gone are the days of needing to road-trip to a neighboring metro area just to catch your favorite artist. With the addition of the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center in 2014, Sioux Falls has rightfully earned its spot on the schedule of many major music tours. Artists skew country—Garth Brooks, Kenny Chesney, Luke Combs, Dolly Parton, Carrie Underwood, Luke Bryan, and Tim McGraw, to name a few—but the PREMIER Center has hosted big names across genres, including Paul McCartney, Elton John, Metallica, Ed Sheeran, and the Backstreet Boys. Snag your seats, and get hyped up with the buzzing energy that only a large venue can create. Whether you're rocking out to heavy metal, swaying to a country crooner, or bouncing to pop hits, there's nothing like doing it alongside 12,000 other superfans. Jam on the floor or enjoy the dazzling view from above—with four levels, 22 suites, and 18 boxes, the ultimate concert experience is just a ticket scan away. Oh, and the one thing Sioux Falls' largest event venue doesn't have? Parking issues. Four free lots surround the complex, making it a breeze to roll up and rock out.

LIVE LIKE A LOCAL AT LEVITT AT THE FALLS

Head out for a stroll downtown on a warm summer evening, and the pull to Levitt at the Falls is almost magnetic. You'll hear the music and feel the buzz of the crowd from blocks away, drawing you into what feels like a giant backyard party with hundreds of your closest friends. The park's band shell has been a summer staple since 2019. Providing an outdoor concert experience that's second to none, the Levitt hosts 50 free performances from a diverse array of talent each season.

Locals sprawl across the lawn on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, and whether you're most comfortable kicking back in a lawn chair (available for rent on-site), lounging on a blanket, or dancing in the grass, all are welcome. The atmosphere is vibrant, relaxed, and always family friendly, with kiddos racing around barefoot and licking ice cream cones. Pack a picnic basket for dinner and a show, or bring your wallet—local vendors serve up food and drinks at every event.

ENJOY AN ELEGANT EVENING AT THE WASHINGTON PAVILION

Try not to trip as you search for your seat in the Washington Pavilion's Mary W. Sommervold Hall—you're likely to be distracted by the venue's stunning, classical setting. With seating for 1,800, the space is sumptuous, the acoustics are crisp, and the entertainment caliber is unbeatable. From the award-winning South Dakota

Symphony Orchestra to traveling musicians, famous comedians, and more, it's the place to be for entertainment that's a cut above the rest. Perhaps the year's most anticipated offering is the Pavilion Performance Series—a selection of Broadway touring shows. After settling into the gorgeous theater seating with a specialty cocktail in hand, you could just as easily be in New York or London, as world-class performers sing and dance their way across the stage. After the show, explore SculptureWalk downtown and marvel at the Arc of Dreams, soaking up another form of meticulous artistry to cap off the evening.

LET LOOSE AT THE DISTRICT

If massive arenas aren't your speed and symphonies aren't your style, The District will strike a chord. Although it can hold up to 1,500 music lovers between the main floor and the upper mezzanine, the bi-level design of this hip urban venue provides an intimate experience that still feels like a party. PIECES OF THE PAST

STEP BACK IN
CITY'S HISTORIC LANDMARKS & MUSEUMS

Signs of Sioux Falls' early days of European settlement can be seen throughout the city. Historic homes and commercial buildings feature the pink glow of locally quarried quartzite, an occasional cross-cut slab of petrified wood, and the remnants of early industries, such as the Queen Bee Mill at Falls Park. Here's where you can find slices of Sioux Falls history.

Pettigrew Home & Museum

Old Courthouse Museum

Pettigrew Home & Museum

During his time in this grand home, Richard F. Pettigrew convinced an East Coast investor to finance the seven-story, 1,200-barrels-per-day Queen Bee flour mill along the Big Sioux River. He harnessed hydropower for the mill and possibly used it to slice petrified wood—a trend among America’s up-and-coming millionaires. You can see petrified wood on the home’s exterior, then tour inside exhibits of the family’s artifacts collected from around the world in conjunction with displays on the region’s natural history and Native American cultures.

Old Courthouse Museum

This massive stone building with stained-glass windows and 16 murals from the 1910s served as the Minnehaha County courthouse from 1890 to 1962. Three floors of exhibits bring to life the history of early settlers and the Plains Indians, along with rotating exhibits. The museum’s gift shop sells local and regional books, crafts, old-fashioned toys, holiday collectibles, souvenirs, and exhibit-related items.

Center for Western Studies

This repository, located next to Augustana University’s Mikkelsen Library, preserves and interprets the history and cultures of indigenous tribes and early European immigrants through exhibits and a library with more than 37,000 volumes on the American West. The center also brings together more than two dozen artists who reflect the region through sculpture, ceramics, paintings, photos, and mixed media for the annual Artists of the Plains Art Show and Sale.

A SALUTE TO VETERANS

Sioux Falls features several sites that commemorate military sacrifice and service.

The USS South Dakota Battleship Memorial is a powerful tribute, with a concrete outline of the vessel that gives visitors a way to grasp the immense size of World War II's most-decorated battleship. The USS South Dakota and its crew fought in every major battle in the Pacific from 1942 to 1945. The museum, which is planning an expansion, offers exhibits on life aboard the ship and stories about crew members who didn't make it home.

The 22-acre Veterans' Memorial Park, built on the site of a former World War II Army Air Corps training base, welcomes visitors with flags, poignant sculptures, historic displays, a memorial wall, and the Medal of Honor Garden. Walking paths along Covell Lake, benches, and an amphitheater provide places to honor and remember veterans of multiple wars.

Established in 2021, South Dakota Veterans Cemetery is the first federally funded state-owned-and-operated cemetery in South Dakota. It encompasses 60 rolling acres on the northern edge of Sioux Falls and north of Interstate 90.

SOUTH DAKOTA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

► THE SOUTH DAKOTA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA is the state's premier performing arts organization. The SDSO curates a diverse collection of orchestral offerings each season through classical and pops concerts, as well as chamber music, appealing to very experienced audiences and first timers. Music Director Delta David Gier leads the artistic vision of the SDSO, a collaboration that has garnered national recognition for innovative programming and statewide outreach. Performances occur October through April in the Washington Pavilion.

Historic Boutique Hotel

Experience the charm of the early 1900s as you step into the lobby of the Hotel on Phillips in downtown Sioux Falls and indulge in the nostalgia of our Boutique hotel. The original historical designs, including high-fluted columns and chandeliers, will transport you back in time. The historical structures house beautiful artifacts that share fascinating stories of life and culture from the area. There's so much to see and explore, so take your time and enjoy it all.

HOTEL ON PHILLIPS was originally built as the Sioux Falls National Bank in 1918 and it continued to operate as a bank over the years and as office space on floors three through nine. At the time it was built, it was the tallest building in South Dakota. Located in the heart and soul of Sioux Falls, Phillips Avenue has an eclectic array of quaint retail stores, upscale restaurants and upbeat lounges in the Historical Downtown District. Hotel on Phillips revels in the views coupled with the sights and sounds of the Big Sioux River as the riverfront continues to grow with more activity each year. Centered in the lobby as the main focal point stands the original Bank Vault with its' 16-ton door and 24-3 inch bolts. The Bank Vault serves as a walk-through entrance to The Treasury Lounge. The Mezzanine overlooking the lobby showcases skylights, seating areas, a business center, a fitness center, Josiah's Library and Hattie's Parlour.
